

Visual Arts Meeting
Splatter Studio
Springfield Mo
2/11/2017

Meeting brought to order at 9:47 am by Deby Gilley

Previous minutes are posted in Newsletter

Possible nominations for Vice President and secretary:

Martha Vicente volunteered for VP – Sandy Strother made motion to nominate Martha Vicente as VAAS vice president, Dee Giles seconded, motion approved by majority present with none opposing.

Vivian Wasson volunteered for Secretary- Sharon Cates made motion to nominate Vivian Wasson for VAAS secretary, Nancy Dornan seconded, motion approved by majority present with no oppositions.

Teresa Dilsaver made motion to accept Dora Elliott's resignation and to accept Dawn Crosby as co-treasurer with Sharon Cates. Martha Vicente seconded motion. All in favor of accepting Dora's resignation with no oppositions.

Nearly Famous Deli-The executive officers passed a motion stating no advertising of discounts to be allowed at Nearly Famous Deli prior to or at the end of a show. Any arrangements for reduced prices should be a private agreement between the buyer and seller.

New Members: Ira Crissman

Visitor: Delores Bauer

Next meeting will be the 1st Saturday of the month, March 4, 2017 at JKH. We will not be hanging a show. Next hanging will be in April

Workshops:

Jesse Swartz – March 11-12, 2017- Chromatic Pop

Suzi and Dawn traveled to St Louis seeking information on a possible workshop with Gary McMichael on photographing art and selling art prints on Fine Art America. Possibly a four hour workshop on Fine Art America. Patti Rios and Suzi Agee attended a 2 day workshop with Gary, Sherri Davis passed around some information and a signup sheet for interest.

Kim Johnson – Watercolor Workshop, May 11-13, 2017. Thurs – Sat.

Announcements:

Maschino's – Nancy Dornan- Groups of Six, Drop off is Feb 28th between 10-12 am. Upcoming theme: Springfield's Public Outdoor Art

Program: Deby Gilley: Composition – an overview of Deby's composition lessons in her intermediate class.

Meeting adjourned at 11: 40.